

Today

Phil Sanders

- Today, I will live as if it is the most important day I possess, because it is actually the only day I have.
- Today, I will whine and complain less. I will be thankful more, because I know that gratitude makes a better person out of me.
- Today, I will criticize less and praise more, because the people I love need to know that I love and approve of them.
- Today, I will take more time with God my Father and less with earthly pleasures. I know that I need His strength and guidance.
- Today, I will pray more and play less. I want my heavenly Father to know my heart, to hear my concerns, and to realize how thankful I am to be His child.
- Today, I will remember my brother more and myself less. I will consider his feelings, his needs and wants more and my own a little less.
- Today, I will speak of Jesus more and my other interests less.
- Today, He must increase, and I must decrease (John 3:30).
- Today, I will remember the souls of all men. I will remember the person who is rude to me still has an eternal soul. I will remember the youth and the weak might see me do something wrong and imitate it. I will remember that my good may encourage another to do right.
- Today, I will remember that I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me. Today I will live by faith in the one who loved me and gave Himself for me.

Bible Verse of the Week

“For all things are for your sakes, that grace, having spread through the many, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.” 2 Corinthians 4:15

Today’s Scripture Reading:

“Therefore we must give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we drift away. For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just reward, how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him...” Hebrews 2:1-3
