Lord’s Supper Reflection

To Call Us to Follow His Example of Humility

“Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.” Phil 2:5-8

Offering Meditation

Your Gift to God helps Support the Poor

“For it pleased those from Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem.” Romans 15:26

What Do You See?

By Steven Haguewood

What do you see? A question that's answer is often subject to our perceptions. What we see is often dictated by what we are looking for. For the first century Jews this was a big problem. They were looking for the Messiah but did not know what to look for. They thought He would be a mighty warrior and restore the throne of David to Jerusalem. When He was with them they could not see Who He really was. They looked for the wrong thing and missed the Messiah.

What do you see? A question that's answer is often subject to our distractions. Our focus is often weakened by the extraneous events of life. We cannot see what is important for all the other things swirling around us. That is often the case for us. We have a simple task, keep your eyes on Jesus and follow Him (Matthew 16:24). But Satan is a master at placing shiny objects in our peripheral vision which draw our attention from Jesus. We have to learn to keep focus on Him as Peter did while walking on the water.

What do you see? A question that's answer is determined by the one doing the looking. You see what you decide to look at. You control your perceptions by controlling what you allow into your heart. You control your focus by remembering the promises of Jesus which outshine the distractions of Satan. What do you see? It depends on what you decide to look at.
